

Questions for Instructor Peer Review of Case Drafts

1. Is the case believable?
detailed, but of general application?
open-ended?
2. Is the story compelling?
easy to read?
3. Are the main character(s) likeable?
sympathetic?
4. What course/project objectives will the case help students attain?
5. What suggestions do you have for making the case even better?
6. How would you assess students' handling of this case?
That is, how would you recommend providing feedback
to students on their performance?

